The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It is essential for the company to have a clear and concise system in place to ensure that all data is properly recorded and stored. This will allow for easy access and retrieval of information when needed.

The second part of the paper focuses on the need for regular communication and collaboration between all departments. It is crucial that everyone is kept up-to-date on the latest developments and changes within the organization. This will help to ensure that everyone is working towards the same goals and objectives.

The third part of the paper addresses the issue of budgeting and financial management. It is important to have a clear understanding of the company's financial situation and to be able to make informed decisions about how to allocate resources. This will help to ensure that the company is able to meet its financial obligations and maintain a healthy bottom line.

The fourth part of the paper discusses the importance of having a strong and effective marketing strategy. It is essential to have a clear understanding of the target market and to be able to reach them with the right message at the right time. This will help to ensure that the company is able to attract and retain customers and grow its business.

The fifth part of the paper focuses on the need for ongoing training and development for all employees. It is important to have a clear understanding of the skills and knowledge required for each position and to be able to provide the necessary training and support. This will help to ensure that everyone is working at their full potential and that the company is able to stay competitive in the market.

The sixth part of the paper addresses the issue of risk management and compliance. It is essential to have a clear understanding of the risks faced by the company and to be able to implement effective measures to mitigate them. This will help to ensure that the company is able to operate in a safe and secure manner and that it is compliant with all relevant laws and regulations.

The seventh part of the paper discusses the importance of having a strong and effective human resources strategy. It is essential to have a clear understanding of the needs of the organization and to be able to attract and retain the right talent. This will help to ensure that the company is able to meet its long-term goals and objectives.

The eighth part of the paper focuses on the need for regular evaluation and feedback. It is important to have a clear understanding of how the company is performing and to be able to make adjustments as needed. This will help to ensure that the company is able to stay on track and achieve its goals.

The ninth part of the paper addresses the issue of innovation and creativity. It is essential to have a clear understanding of the latest trends and technologies and to be able to implement them in a way that adds value to the company. This will help to ensure that the company is able to stay ahead of the competition and maintain its position in the market.

The tenth part of the paper discusses the importance of having a strong and effective corporate culture. It is essential to have a clear understanding of the values and beliefs that guide the company and to be able to communicate them effectively. This will help to ensure that everyone is working towards the same goals and objectives and that the company is able to maintain a positive and productive environment.

Nicholas Cottrell is first mentioned on the list of inhabitants of Newport Rhode Island, on May 20, 1638. He was admitted a freeman in 1655. He represented the Town of Westerly in the Colonial Assembly in 1670. He is one of the signers of the Masquamicut (Westerly) Purchase Contract. He afterwards bought a tract of 700 acres of Plymouth Colony in that part of Taunton now called Freetown Mass. Here he died in 1680. He left a will probated in Taunton in which he mentions 8 children. His son Jabez was executor.

Nicholas was twice married. The name of his first wife is unknown; but his second wife was Martha. After Nicholas' death she married Walter Morey (Merry).

II Generation

Nicholas' John<sup>2</sup> Cottrell mentioned in his father's will was of Westerly and Kingston Rhode Island. He owned land in Kingston in 1681 which was laid out to Rev. John Crandall. His wife's name is not known. Mrs. Bates in her notes suggests his second wife might be Hannah (Gaylord) Crandall. If this is so it might explain how he came in possession of the Crandall land. He died early in 1704 leaving a will of which his son John was executor.

Dec 31 1709 John Cottrell quitclaimed  $\frac{1}{3}$  of said farm to his brother Nathaniel Cottrell. This farm was west of Slocumville in territory taken from North Kingston in 1742 when Exeter was set off from North Kingston (Bates Vol. 8 page 72).

Newport Church Record

Oct 1, 1693.

Brother Joseph Crandall and Brother John Maxson Jr. were appointed by the Sabbatarian Church as messengers to signify to him (John) that they have taken notice of his neglect in meeting with the congregation; and do therefore exhort him to discharge his duty therein; and received answer that it was on account of a difference between him and Brother Clarke. The Church met Oct 25 and issued the difference.

Sept 23 1694— The Sabbatarian Church met at Westley and issued the difference between Brother Cottrell and Bro. Clarke, and likewise between Bro. Cottrell and Bro. Tobin. Sept 12 1697. the Church met to consider of a result concerning Bro. John Cottrell's disorder in neglecting his assembling with the Church and refusing to hear the Church notwithstanding several admonition. but the matter was suspended until Sept. 17, 1798 when the following was entered by the records of the Church "Whereas John Cottrell having for some time stood as a brother in this congregation and having for a long time neglected his duties in the church, although

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry must be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data. The second part of the document outlines the procedures for handling discrepancies. It states that any difference between the recorded amount and the actual amount must be investigated immediately. The third part of the document provides a detailed explanation of the accounting system used. It describes how the system tracks income, expenses, and assets. The fourth part of the document discusses the role of the accounting department in the overall business operations. It highlights the importance of providing timely and accurate financial information to management. The fifth part of the document provides a summary of the key findings of the audit. It concludes that the accounting system is generally sound, but there are some areas that need improvement. The sixth part of the document provides recommendations for how to address these areas. It suggests implementing more rigorous controls and improving the training of the accounting staff. The seventh part of the document provides a list of the documents and records that were reviewed during the audit. The eighth part of the document provides a list of the questions that were asked during the audit. The ninth part of the document provides a list of the answers that were given during the audit. The tenth part of the document provides a list of the conclusions that were reached during the audit.
